

Private
W. Lloyd Garrison
Dear friend

Philadelphia 4th Mo<sup>o</sup> 15th 1851

In defending our friend Thompson from some of the many slanders heaped upon him the other day to one of his enemies that as he was not a disunionist he ought not to have that name added to his others. As author of to prove the veracity my friend points to the Whig Review for this month or the one just out, which purports to quote from the London Morning Chronicle of Sept. 1848 in which I am made to say that as to the interest saw of Great Britain to promote a separation of the states &c. &c. The Review goes on to say that in this Country he takes the ground & makes him out two main & wanting a true comrade. Can you tell me if the quotation in the Review is true or not? I want very much to know. Very truly &c. &c.
E. M. Davis

The above is a list of the names of the persons who have been appointed to the various offices of the Society for the year 1871.
 The names are given in alphabetical order.